BANGOR,

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1838.

It will be seen by the report of the proceedings in Congress on Friday, that the Executive has become sensible of the necessity of preserving neutrality on our Northern frontier, and has asked an enlargement of its powers for that purpose. The opinions expressed by men of all parties in the Senate, we are happy to see, confirm the propriety of the views which we have taken of the subject, and which, we are sorry to learn, do not entirely coincide with those entertained by some of our friends.

CANADA.

We have nothing to-day, to be relied upon, from the Niagara frontier. The Albany Argus says that a report was current in that city on Thursday night that an attack had been made by the British troops upon Navy Island, and that they were repulsed by the Revolutionists upon the Island with loss and the capture of their boats. That Van Rensselaer had crossed the river and that the banner of the insurgents was flying at Chippewa. "It is, no doubt," says the Argus, "one of the thousand unfounded rumors in circulation, and entitled to no credit."

The Commissary General, of New York was about to proceed from Buffalo to Navy Island, to demand the restoration of the State property there, in possession of the Revolutionists.

The 24th Regiment left Montreal for Upper Canada on Monday, together with a company of artillery. It is not probable that Navy Island will be attacked until the arrival of those troops at Chippewa. The 84th Regiment had arrived at Quebec from Halifax, and the 34th had left Halifax for Quebec.

By our last accounts from Augusta, the House still had the Report of the Committee on the Gubernatorial Votes under consideration. The opinion prevailed that the report would be accepted by both branches.

We have received the Report, but as the substance appeared yesterday in the letter of our Augusta Correspondent, we do not publish it.

Maryland Senator. The Hon. William D. Merrick, of Maryland, has been elected to the Senate of the United States, in place of the late Gov. Kent. Mr. Merrick took his seat on Friday last.

North Eastern Boundary. A special Messenger from Great Britain arrived in the Packet ship Geo. Washington, bringing despatches to the British Minister, it is said, upon the subject of the North Eastern Boundary.

The amount of Treasury notes issued up to the 1st of January, was $2,992,989 15 $786,-520 87 of the same have been received by Collectors of the Customs in payment of duties.

Short Passage. The Packet ship Pennsylvania arrived at Liverpool from New York, in 14 days and 14 hours, which is said to be the shortest passage ever made.

From Europe. London and Liverpool papers as late as Dec. 4th, were received in New York on Friday last by the arrival of several packets. The New York papers are filled with extracts from the foreign Journals, but there seems to be no important news.

The British Parliament was in session. The Speech of the Queen was delivered by her in person on the 20th. The reply to it was carried almost without opposition 509 to 20.

News of the Canadian disturbance, but not of the actual outbreak, had reached England. By the proceedings of the Government, it was evident that they were preparing for the most unfavorable intelligence. It was rumored that Lord Gosford was to be recalled and Sir John Colburne to be appointed in his place.

The Cotton Market had very materially improved, and commercial affairs were in a prosperous train.

OUR STATE LEGISLATURE.

Monday, Jan. 8, 1838.

In the Senate. The President pro tem in the Chair. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Curtis of Augusta (Baptist.)

Mr. Belcher from the committee to prepare rules and orders, made a report of rules and orders which was read and laid on the table.

Mr. Ham from the committee appointed to count the Senatorial votes made a report which was read and accepted.

Mr. Ham offered an order proposing a convention of the two houses forthwith, for the purpose of filling the vacancy in the 8th Senatorial District, and declaring that Shilometh S. Whipple and Stephen C. Foster are the constitutional candidates. [The votes were for Stephen C. Foster 1217, Shilometh S. Whipple 1146, scattering 161.] The order passed, and the two houses went into convention, and elected Shilometh S. Whipple.

The Secretary of the Senate laid on the table the list of unfinished business of last year.

On motion of Mr. Belcher, Ordered, That the Secretary of the Senate notify Shilometh S. Whipple that he has been elected a Senator for the current political year, and request his immediate attendance at this board.

On motion of Mr. Randall, Ordered, That when the Senate adjourn it be to ten o'clock to-morrow morning, and that this be the hour of meeting until otherwise ordered.

The report of the State Treasurer was laid on the [illegible] of the [illegible].

A remonstrance was presented against the votes of the town of Bingham, which was read and laid on the table 8 to 7.

IN THE HOUSE.

Monday, Jan. 8.

Prayer by Rev. Silas Curtis of Augusta.

Mr. Ly[illegible] from the Committee appointed to employ a Messenger, reported that the Committee [illegible] John Hanscomb of [illegible] to [illegible] charge [illegible] at a compensation of $5 per day for his [illegible].

Mr. [illegible] moved to amend the report by striking out the name of John Hanscomb of [illegible], and inserting the name of William M. Saunders.

Mr. Dunlap called for the gentleman's reasons.

Mr. L. replied that Mr. Saunders had already acted as assistant messenger to the satisfaction of the House, and he preferred one who had the benefit of some experience, and with whom we are acquainted, to an entire stranger.

Mr Parris would thank the gentleman from Brunswick to give his reasons for wishing to employ Mr Hanscomb.

Mr Lyman said in reply, that but two individuals had applied for the office; Mr Hanscomb and the present incumbent. The committee was satisfied with the qualifications of Mr Hanscomb, and had therefore, contracted with him.

Mr Parris remarked that he did not consider an application for an office any indication of merit. The very fact that Mr. Saunders had not sought the situation of Messenger, was a circumstance in his favor. He presumed there were others quite as well qualified as those who had applied, and he hoped the motion to amend would prevail.

Mr. Appleton did not understand the gentleman from Portland as urging the mere fact of his application for the office as a sufficient reason for Mr Hanscomb's appointment, but that after his application, the committee became satisfied from his recommendations and from other evidence, that he was every way a competent and suitable person. As to the retiring modesty of the person proposed as a substitute, it was a little remarkable that he should be too modest to present his name to a committee of three, and at the same time should offer himself as a candidate to the whole House. It was perfectly becoming and proper for those who desired the office to go before the committee.

Mr. Delesdernier did not view the subject in the same light with the gentleman last up; he believed the party, so long in the minority, has heretofore professed to consider a reluctance to apply for office as a mark of merit, if so, their present conduct was complete refutation of their former professions; for it he was rightly informed, or if the public journals were entitled to credit, there were at this time no less than from 150 to 200 persons surrounding this Hall, clamorous for office, fresh from their debaucheries and drunken revelry. He did not wish to give offence by any of his remarks, and if he had done so, he asked pardon. With regard to Mr Saunders, he was a person of unexceptionable character, and has a widowed mother entirely dependent upon him for support; this was a circumstance of great weight with him, and he hoped the amendment would be adopted.

Mr Hubbard enquired of the gentleman last up, who distinguished themselves as office-seekers, when a certain individual was appointed High Sheriff in Washington county some years since.

Mr. Delesdernier in reply stated that he had never made an application to the Executive of this State for the office of sheriff, nor for any thing else.

The question was then taken on the amendment, and it was rejected, 49 in the affirmative, 80 in the negative.

Mr. Delesdernier then moved to amend the report by striking out the name of John Hanscomb, and inserting the name of Thos. Baker.

Mr Sheldon inquired if Mr Baker was also the son of a poor widow.

Mr D replied that he did know, but presumed she must, if alive, be a very old person. Mr Saunders was his first choice, but the amendment had failed, and he hoped the question would be disposed of without further debate.

The 2nd amendment was rejected Yeas 89, Nays 84.

The report of the Committee was then accepted Yeas 86, Nays 80.

The following gentlemen were announced by the Speaker as composing the Standing Committee on the Pay Roll, viz: Messrs. Levensaler, Baxton, Gross, Lord, Barrows, Craig and West.

On motion of Mr Lyman, Ordered, That the Committee on the pay roll be directed to make up the pay of Thomas Baker as messenger, including to-morrow, and the 2 days preceding the meeting of the Legislature, at the rate of $5 per day for himself, page and assistant.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that a vacancy existed in the 8th Senatorial District, that Stephen C Foster and Shilometh S. Whipple were the constitutional candidates, and proposing a convention of both branches of the Legislature, forthwith, to fill the vacancy.

The House concurred, whereupon the Senate came in, and the President having stated the object of the convention, the following gentlemen were appointed to receive sort and count the votes for Senator of the 8th Senatorial district in the County of Washington, viz: Messrs. Ham and Dumont of the Senate—Messrs. Sheldon, Hamlin and Appleton of the House, and the Committee having attended to that duty reported that the whole number of votes was 201

Necessary to a choice	101
Stephen C. Foster has	97
Shilometh S. Whipple has	104 and is chosen.

The report was accepted, and the convention was dissolved.

Mr. Fox of Portland, Chairman on the part of the House of the Committee appointed to examine the returns of votes for Governor, rose and stated, that the Committee had attended to the duty assigned to them and were now ready to report to the House, and that no individual might be surprised that this report should be first made to the House, he would state that the Committee had agreed with great unanimity on this mode of presenting it to the Legislature.

The report was then read by Mr. Fox. It was of considerable length, and presented a minute detail of all the facts in relation to the votes in all the towns from which remonstrances had been received, and an exposition of the principles by which the Committee were governed in receiving or rejecting returns.

The whole number of votes constitutionally given in was	68523
Necessary to a choice	34262
Edward Kent has	34358
Gorham Parks has	33879
All others have	286

Mr Kent has 193 votes more than all other persons, and is constitutionally elected Governor by the people for the current political year.

On motion of Mr Vose, the report was laid on the table, and the Clerk directed to have 1000 copies printed for the use of the House.

Mr Norton moved to amend, by adding to the report a list of the votes of the different cities, towns and plantations, which was agreed to.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock.

Afternoon.

A communication was received from the Commissioner of the Treasury, transmitting his report of the condition of that Department. Laid on the table.

Adjourned.

The Legislature of Virginia met on the 1st inst. and organized. In the House of Delegates, Mr. Lyon Parks was elected speaker, almost unanimously, and George W. Munford was elected Clerk. The Governor's message was received the same day. [Phil. Herald.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Friday, Jan. 5.

THE CANADAS.

Important Message of the President Preservation of neutrality Canada Affairs.

In Senate, a message was received from the President of the United States, declaring that existing laws had been found insufficient to guard against the hostile invasion of the Canadian territory by the citizens of the United States. The laws were sufficient to punish such offences after they had been committed, but not to prevent the perpetration of them.

The President, therefore, asked the attention of Congress to the defects in the laws; and requested that the Executive might be clothed with authority to prevent acts calculated to disturb the peace of the country; and involve us in difficulties with a foreign nation; and he recommended an immediate revision of the existing laws, and the passage of such additional enactments, as Congress might think expedient and necessary, to prevent the invasion of the territory of a nation with whom we are at peace, either by our own citizens or others subjected to the control of this government.

The President also communicated a despatch from the Marshal of the Northern District of New York, giving an account of various disturbances on the frontier.

The message having been read, Mr Clay rose to express the great satisfaction he felt at the character of this message. No spectacle, he said was more unworthy of a free people, professing to abide by their constitution and laws, than that presented by the papers before the Senate, of the nation at peace and the people at war.

He considered it the duty of Congress to carry out the recommendations of the President, and pass any additional enactments that might be necessary. He gave no opinion about the causes of the difficulties in Canada, but he maintained that until the constituted authorities of the country decided, no citizen ought to take it upon himself to interfere in any manner or to any extent whatever.

Mr. Clay hoped that the Committee to whom this subject would be referred would also look to another matter connected with it, and inquire whether any portion of the United States Territory, or of the territory in dispute, had been occupied by the British authorities, to transport troops, ammunition, &c.; for if that had been the case, he should regard the proceeding quite as objectionable as any open interference by our citizens.

Mr Calhoun said that from the beginning of these difficulties on the N. E. Boundary, he had been most anxious that our neutrality should be preserved. Of all calamities that could befal, not only this country but the world, he regarded a rupture with England as one of the greatest. He hoped means would be given to the Executive to secure thorough neutrality.

Mr Norvell of Michigan, said he entirely agreed to what had been said by Messrs. Clay and Calhoun; and he regretted that the neutrality of the country in another quarter (Texas) had not also been preserved.

Mr Davis of Massachusetts concurred in the views that had been thrown out in regard to the obligations of the government to preserve neutrality and he added also, that it was a matter of deep regret that the government had not moved earlier in this matter, and exerted itself to preserve neutrality in another quarter.

He concurred too, with Mr Calhoun, in the sentiment that a rupture with England would be a great calamity; but he should be sorry to believe that this great and growing country was influenced by the consideration, that one nation is powerful and another weak.

He thanked Mr. Clay, also, for having called the attention of the Senate and the country to the other question in respect to the disputed territory. It was most important to know what use had been made by the British authorities of that territory: Massachusetts, as well as Maine had a great interest in the subject. He reminded the Senate that this territory answered the purpose of England.

Mr. Davis was followed by Mr. Benton, who said that the military committee, of which he is chairman, have now under consideration some measures which will enable the executive the better to carry into effect the existing laws for suppressing disturbances, and preserving order.

One of these measures proposed an increase of the peace military establishment; and the communication now made by the President would undoubtedly be an additional reason to induce that committee to report at as early a day as possible.

The message was then referred to the committee on foreign relations.

MR. CALHOUN'S RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Calhoun's resolutions were then taken up, and the question being on the adoption of an amendment to the third resolution offered by Mr. Allen yesterday, providing that the resolutions should not be held to injure freedom of speech and the right of petition, it was carried, ayes 32, nays 14.

Mr. Morris then took the floor, and is now addressing the Senate against the resolution.

The HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES have been engaged up to this time, chiefly in the reception of reports from Committees. The message was received from the President here also, and read. Mr. Fillmore of Buffalo made several attempts to offer a resolution on the subject, but it was not in order, and the House refused to suspend the rules. He will, however, most probably, have an opportunity to present it during the day. [Boston Centinel.

"ET TU BRUTE."

The Democratic Governor of Virginia, has the impudence to ascribe the embarrassments to their true causes, namely, 1. The specie circular, adopted by the arbitrary will of the Executive, and continued in force by the same authority, after an express condemnation of it by more than two-thirds of both Houses of Congress. 2. The bungling manner in which the distribution act was executed by the Secretary of the Treasury. And 3, and not least, the conditions imposed by the Secretary of the Treasury on the Banks in which the public money was deposited, that they should accommodate largely to reconcile the people to the Experiment and the Administration. What will Mr. Van Buren and his friends say to this? [Phil. Herald.

THE HON. RICHARD FLETCHER.

Mr. Fletcher has addressed a long letter to the citizens of Boston, his constituents, explanatory of his conduct in Congress in relation to his speech at Faneuil Hall. His letter is published in the Atlas, and is accompanied by editorial explanations which, taken in conjunction with Mr Fletcher's explanation, and reiteration of what he did actually say at Faneuil Hall, completely clear him from the censure under which he before labored.

Mr Fletcher had stated, on the floor of Congress, that his speech as reported, contained expressions which he would never have used; in reply to this the Atlas asserted that Mr. F. had himself examined and corrected the proof before it was published. But the Atlas now cheerfully admits that the Editor was mistaken, and had been led into error by the foreman the revision of the speech was made by another person and not Mr F.

Mr. Cambreleng has crowed or as the Editor of the New York Express says, "cock-a-doodle-doed," over Mr. F. ever since he found the latter was not disposed to invite him to partake of pistols and coffee; but Mr. F. has reiterated the charges he made against the Committee of Ways and Means, namely that the majority adopted the bills sent them from the Treasury Department, without deliberation, and reported them to the House in the shape they were received, thereby making themselves the mere tools of the Executive. We presume Mr. Cambreleng with all his "cock-a-doodle-doing," will not dare to contradict this statement of Mr. Fletcher, and must digest it as best he may. [Philadelphia Herald.

Should the federalists obtain the power, which they are now endeavoring to obtain by bribery, finding it impossible to do it, by argument, we should soon see the poor men's right of suffrage wrenched from him; and "that form of Government which has no better corrective than the virtue and intelligence of the people," torn peise meal!!!

What a state of society have they at the south. Men going into the halls of legislation, armed to the teeth with dirks, pistols and Bowie knives, and thus armed as an every-day practice. We never saw a Bowie knife, but believe they are 15 to 18 inches long, sharp on one side only, and are concealed in the bosom, next to the shirt, and extend down under the waste of the pantaloons. Weapons are but little worn in New England, but between that and the Allegany Mountains they are more or less worn: beyond the Mountains it becomes a general practice, and especially south of the Ohio river, where scarce a white man can be found destitute of deadly weapons. But few, comparatively, of the numerous bloody transactions find their way into the public prints, but are hushed up. Sword canes is another very common weapon with southerners, which can be unsheathed in an instant!!! [Rep Journal.]

Wonderful! Not a word in the Globe of Monday night against Nicholas Biddle the Pennsylvania Bank or the United States or "resurrection notes"! Has "his serene highness" discovered that the citizens of Pennsylvania have too much pride to allow the general government to insult them by an audacious attempt to destroy the best institutions of the state, without resenting it? [Ibid.

An Iron Horse. A mechanic named David Ritter, of New Haven, has invented an iron horse. This is propelled by springs by the turning of a crank, which the rider does with the greatest ease. The horse is a fac simile of a live one, and will go at the rate of twenty miles an hour. He thinks there will be no use for rail roads, and it will be much cheaper, as the horse will not eat one bushel of oats in 50 years only a little oiling three or four times a year. [Mercury.

Melancholy Casualty. A letter from the Postmaster of Camden, S. C published in the Washington Globe of Monday, states that a serious accident occurred at the ferry on the 23d inst. The flat sprung aleak and sunk as it was crossing over, with twenty black persons on board, and a wagon and four horses, and also the express mail from the North, with the boy and horse. Sixteen blacks and three horses were drowned. The boy and horse were saved by swimming to the shore. The mail bag was found early the next morning, two or three hundred yards below the ferry, on some bushes. The night was very stormy and dark, and the river quite full. The mail contained three India rubber canvass bags; two of them were in tolerably good order, the third was in a very wet state, so that the packages had to be taken singly and dried by the fire. The bags were forwarded by the stage to Columbia on the 24th Dec.

Polish Refugees Reverse of Fortune. A few of the Polish refugees, who had served in their own country as common soldiers, have with great difficulty succeeded in procuring employment as excavators of the railroad; and this employment, offering a relief from the pangs of want, has been eagerly sought by their superior companions in arms; and soldiers and officers may now be seen side by side, from six o'clock in the morning to six in the evening, at the Great Western Railroad. Two of these apprentices to the axe and spade are a Lieutenant Colonel B   z and a Major M   z; another is a Lithuanian noble, S   z, the owner in his own country of a large estate, now confiscated, and whose hours of toil and exile are embittered by his severance from a young and lovely wife and children, to correspond with whom was adjudged a crime by the despotic Czar. Many a youth of polished education and child of once wealthy parents many a scion of ancient Polish houses, fraternise with the railroad excavators; and though by their birth destined to move in the highest circles, and by their rank to sit at princely boards, may now be seen with the green turf for their table, consuming, with the English laborer, the frugal fare of a morsel of bread earned by the severest toil. COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

TAXES MUST BE PAID.

MANY of the good people of this City have had "line upon line, and precept upon precept," by way of polite and pressing invitations, to pay their taxes. The strong language of the Assessor's Warrants for the year 1837, as committed to me, will not allow of further parley or delay. Every resident of the city, who has not yet paid his tax, is earnestly called upon to neglect no longer this necessary and important duty, as in such matters "delays are dangerous."

Non Residents should look out in order that the Collector does not make too great a profit in advertising and selling their lands for taxes of 1837. The only way to prevent this is, by calling immediately and paying the same.

☞ The Collector will be at the City Hall from 9 to 10 A. M. and from 2 to 3 o'clock, P. M.

To the Hon. the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled,

THE undersigned beg leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island, at Stillwater, to extend up and across the main Penobscot River through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore, would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of Lumber at that place, and in case of injury to the boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber, would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide waters, or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured.

Wherefore we pray your hon. body to grant us an Act of Incorporation, with such immunities and restrictions as may seem just and as will subserve the interests aforesaid. And as in duty bound will ever pray.

BANGOR,
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1838.

It will be seen by the report of the proceedings in Congress on Friday, that the Executive has become sensible of the necessity of preserving neutrality on our Northern frontier, and has asked an enlargement of its powers for that purpose. The opinions expressed by men of all parties in the Senate, we are happy to see, confirm the propriety of the views which we have taken of the subject, and which, we are sorry to learn, do not entirely coincide with those entertained by some of our friends.

CANADA.

We have nothing to-day, to be relied upon, from the Niagara frontier. The Albany Argus says that a report was current in that city on Thursday night that an attack had been made by the British troops upon Navy Island, and that they were repulsed by the Revolutionists upon the Island with loss and the capture of their boats. That Van Rensselaer had crossed the river and that the banner of the insurgents was flying at Chippewa. "It is, no doubt," says the Argus, "one of the thousand unfounded rumors in circulation, and entitled to no credit."

The Commissary General of New York was about to proceed from Buffalo to Navy Island, to demand the restoration of the State property there, in possession of the Revolutionists.

The 24th Regiment left Montreal for Upper Canada on Monday, together with a company of artillery. It is not probable that Navy Island will be attacked until the arrival of those troops at Chippewa. The 84th Regiment had arrived at Quebec from Halifax, and the 34th had left Halifax for Quebec.

By our last accounts from Augusta, the House still had the Report of the Committee on the Gubernatorial Votes under consideration. The opinion prevailed that the report would be accepted by both branches.

We have received the Report, but as the substance appeared yesterday in the letter of our Augusta Correspondent, we do not publish it.

MARYLAND SENATOR. The Hon William D Merrick, of Maryland, has been elected to the Senate of the United States, in place of the late Gov. Kent. Mr. Merrick took his seat on Friday last.

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY. A special Messenger from Great Britain arrived in the Packet ship Geo. Washington, bringing despatches to the British Minister, it is said, upon the subject of the North Eastern Boundary.

The amount of Treasury notes issued up to the 1st of January, was $2,992,989 15—$786,520 87 of the same have been received by Collectors of the Customs in payment of duties.

SHORT PASSAGE. The Packet ship Pennsylvania arrived at Liverpool from New York, in 14 days and 14 hours! which is said to be the shortest passage ever made.

FROM EUROPE. London and Liverpool papers as late as Dec. 4th, were received in New York on Friday last by the arrival of several packets. The New York papers are filled with extracts from the foreign Journals, but there seems to be no important news.

The British Parliament was in session. The Speech of the Queen was delivered by her in person on the 20th. The reply to it was carried almost without opposition 509 to 20.

News of the Canadian disturbance, but not of the actual outbreak, had reached England. By the proceedings of the Government, it was evident that they were preparing for the most unfavorable intelligence. It was rumored that Lord Gosford was to be recalled and Sir John Colburne to be appointed in his place.

The Cotton Market had very materially improved, and commercial affairs were in a prosperous train.

OUR STATE LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY, Jan. 8, 1838.

IN THE SENATE. The President pro tem in the Chair. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Curtis of Augusta (Baptist.)

Mr. Belcher from the committee to prepare rules and orders, made a report of rules and orders which was read and laid on the table.

Mr. Ham from the committee appointed to count the Senatorial votes made a report which was read and accepted.

Mr. Ham offered an order proposing a convention of the two houses forthwith, for the purpose of filling the vacancy in the 8th Senatorial District, and declaring that Shilometh S. Whipple and Stephen C. Foster are the constitutional candidates. [The votes were for Stephen C. Foster 1217. Shilometh S. Whipple 1146, scattering 161.] The order passed, and the two houses went into convention, and elected Shilometh S. Whipple.

The Secretary of the Senate laid on the table the list of unfinished business of last year.

On motion of Mr. Belcher, Ordered, That the Secretary of the Senate notify Shilometh S. Whipple that he has been elected a Senator for the current political year, and request his immediate attendance at this board.

On motion of Mr. Randall, Ordered, That when the Senate adjourn it be to ten o'clock to-morrow morning and that this be the hour of meeting until otherwise ordered.

The report of the State Treasurer was laid on [illegible]

A remonstrance was presented against the votes of the town of Bingham, which was read and laid on the table 8 to 7.

IN THE HOUSE.

MONDAY, Jan. 8.

Prayer by Rev. Silas Curtis of Augusta.

Mr. Lyman from the Committee appointed to employ a Messenger, reported that the Committee had contracted with John Hanscomb of [illegible] to discharge that office at a compensation of $5 per day for his [illegible]

Mr. Delesdernier moved to amend the report by striking out the name of John Hanscomb [illegible] and inserting the name of William M. Saunders.

Mr Dunlap called for the gentleman's reasons.

Mr L. replied that Mr Saunders had already acted as assistant messenger to the satisfaction of the House, and he preferred one who had the benefit of some experience, and with whom we are acquainted, to an entire stranger.

Mr Parris would thank the gentleman from Brunswick to give his reasons for wishing to employ Mr Hanscomb.

Mr Lyman said in reply, that but two individuals had applied for the office; Mr Hanscomb and the present incumbent. The committee was satisfied with the qualifications of Mr Hanscomb, and had therefore, contracted with him.

Mr Parris remarked that he did not consider an application for an office any indication of merit. The very fact that Mr. Saunders had not sought the situation of Messenger, was a circumstance in his favor. He presumed there were others quite as well qualified as those who had applied, and he hoped the motion to amend would prevail.

Mr. Appleton did not understand the gentleman from Portland as urging the mere fact of his application for the office as a sufficient reason for Mr Hanscomb's appointment, but that after his application, the committee became satisfied from his recommendations and from other evidence, that he was every way a competent and suitable person. As to the retiring modesty of the person proposed as a substitute, it was a little remarkable that he should be too modest to present his name to a committee of three, and at the same time should offer himself as a candidate to the whole House. It was perfectly becoming and proper for those who desired the office to go before the committee.

Mr. Delesdernier did not view the subject in the same light with the gentleman last up; he believed the party, so long in the minority, has heretofore professed to consider a reluctance to apply for office as a mark of merit, if so, their present conduct was complete refutation of their former professions; for if he was rightly informed, or if the public journals were entitled to credit, there were at this time no less than from 150 to 200 persons surrounding this Hall, clamorous for office, fresh from their debaucheries and drunken revelry. He did not wish to give offence by any of his remarks, and if he had done so he asked pardon. With regard to Mr Saunders, he was a person of unexceptionable character, and has a widowed mother entirely dependent upon him for support; this was a circumstance of great weight with him, and he hoped the amendment would be adopted.

Mr Hubbard enquired of the gentleman last up, who distinguished themselves as office-seekers, when a certain individual was appointed High Sheriff in Washington county some years since.

Mr Delesdernier in reply stated that he had never made an application to the Executive of this State for the office of sheriff, nor for any thing else.

The question was then taken on the amendment, and it was rejected, 79 in the affirmative, 86 in the negative.

Mr. Delesdernier then moved to amend the report by striking out the name of John Hanscomb, and inserting the name of Thos. Baker.

Mr Sheldon inquired if Mr Baker was also the son of a poor widow.

Mr D replied that he did know, but presumed she must, if alive, be a very old person. Mr Saunders was his first choice, but the amendment had failed, and he hoped the question would be disposed of without further debate.

The 2nd amendment was rejected Yeas 89, Nays 84.

The report of the Committee was then accepted Yeas 86, Nays 80.

The following gentlemen were announced by the Speaker as composing the Standing Committee on the Pay Roll, viz: Messrs Levenseler, Baxton, Gross, Lord, Barrows, Craig and West.

On motion of Mr Lyman, Ordered, That the Committee on the pay roll be directed to make up the pay of Thomas Baker as messenger, including to-morrow, and the 2 days preceding the meeting of the Legislature, at the rate of $5 per day for himself, page and assistant.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that a vacancy existed in the 8th Senatorial District, that Stephen C Foster and Shilometh S. Whipple were the constitutional candidates, and proposing a convention of both branches of the Legislature, forthwith, to fill the vacancy.

The House concurred, whereupon the Senate came in, and the President having stated the object of the convention, the following gentlemen were appointed to receive sort and count the votes for Senator of the 8th Senatorial district in the County of Washington, viz: Messrs. Ham and Dumont of the Senate Messrs Sheldon, Hamlin and Appleton of the House, and the Committee having attended to that duty reported that the whole number of votes was 201

Stephen C. Foster has	97
Shilometh S. Whipple has	104 and

is chosen.

The report was accepted, and the convention was dissolved.

Mr Fox of Portland, Chairman on the part of the House of the Committee appointed to examine the returns of votes for Governor, rose and stated, that the Committee had attended to the duty assigned to them and were now ready to report to the House, and that no individual might be surprised that this report should be first made to the House, he would state that the Committee had agreed with great unanimity on this mode of presenting it to the Legislature.

The report was then read by Mr. Fox. It was of considerable length, and presented a minute detail of all the facts in relation to the votes in all the towns from which remonstrances had been received, and an exposition of the principles by which the Committee were governed in receiving or rejecting returns.

The whole number of votes constitutionally given in was	68523
Necessary to a choice	34262
EDWARD KENT has	34358
GORHAM PARKS has	33879
All others have	286

MR KENT has 193 votes more than all other persons, and is constitutionally elected Governor by the people for the current political year.

On motion of Mr Vose, the report was laid on the table, and the Clerk directed to have 1000 copies printed for the use of the House.

Mr Norton moved to amend, by adding to the report a list of the votes of the different cities, towns and plantations, which was agreed to.

Adjourned to 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON.

A communication was received from the Commissioner of the Treasury, transmitting his report of the condition of that Department laid on the table.

Adjourned.

The Legislature of Virginia met on the 1st inst. and organized. In the House of Delegates, Mr. Lyon Banks was elected speaker almost unanimously, and George W. Mumford was elected Clerk. The Governor's message was received the same day. [Phil. Herald.

CONGRESSIONAL.

FRIDAY, Jan. 5.

THE CANADAS.

Important Message of the President Preservation of neutrality Canada Affairs.

IN SENATE, a message was received from the President of the United States, declaring that existing laws had been found insufficient to guard against the hostile invasion of the Canadian territory by the citizens of the United States. The laws were sufficient to punish such offences after they had been committed, but not to prevent the perpetration of them.

The President, therefore, asked the attention of Congress to the defects in the laws; and requested that the Executive might be clothed with authority to prevent acts calculated to disturb the peace of the country; and involve us in difficulties with a foreign nation; and he recommended an immediate revision of the existing laws, and the passage of such additional enactments, as Congress might think expedient and necessary, to prevent the invasion of the territory of a nation with whom we are at peace, either by our own citizens or others subjected to the control of this government.

The President also communicated a despatch from the Marshal of the Northern District of New York, giving an account of various disturbances on the frontier.

The message having been read, Mr Clay rose to express the great satisfaction he felt at the character of this message. No spectacle, he said was more unworthy of a free people, professing to abide by their constitution and laws, than that presented by the papers before the Senate, of the nation at peace and the people at war.

He considered it the duty of Congress to carry out the recommendations of the President, and pass any additional enactments that might be necessary. He gave no opinion about the causes of the difficulties in Canada, but he maintained that until the constituted authorities of the country decided, no citizen ought to take it upon himself to interfere in any manner or to any extent whatever.

Mr. Clay hoped that the Committee to whom this subject would be referred would also look to another matter connected with it, and inquire whether any portion of the United States Territory, or of the territory in dispute, had been occupied by the British authorities, to transport troops, ammunition, &c.; for if that had been the case, he should regard the proceeding quite as objectionable as any open interference by our citizens.

Mr Calhoun said that from the beginning of these difficulties on the N. E. Boundary, he had been most anxious that our neutrality should be preserved. Of all calamities that could befal, not only this country but the world, he regarded a rupture with England as one of the greatest. He hoped means would be given to the Executive to secure thorough neutrality.

Mr Norvell of Michigan, said he entirely agreed to what had been said by Messrs. Clay and Calhoun; and he regretted that the neutrality of the country in another quarter (Texas) had not also been preserved.

Mr Davis of Massachusetts concurred in the views that had been thrown out in regard to the obligations of the government to preserve neutrality and he added also, that it was a matter of deep regret that the government had not moved earlier in this matter, and exerted itself to preserve neutrality in another quarter.

He concurred, too, with Mr Calhoun, in the sentiment that a rupture with England would be a great calamity; but he should be sorry to believe that this great and growing country was influenced by the consideration, that one nation is powerful and another weak.

He thanked Mr. Clay, also, for having called the attention of the Senate and the country to the other question in respect to the disputed territory. It was most important to know what use had been made by the British authorities of that territory. Massachusetts, as well as Maine had a great interest in the subject. He reminded the Senate that this territory answered the purpose of England.

Mr. Davis was followed by Mr. Benton, who said that the military committee, of which he is chairman, have now under consideration some measures which will enable the executive the better to carry into effect the existing laws for suppressing disturbances, and preserving order.

One of these measures proposed an increase of the peace military establishment; and the communication now made by the President would undoubtedly be an additional reason to induce that committee to report at as early a day as possible.

The message was then referred to the committee on foreign relations.

MR. CALHOUN'S RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Calhoun's resolutions were then taken up, and the question being on the adoption of an amendment to the third resolution offered by Mr. Allen yesterday, providing that the resolutions should not be held to injure freedom of speech and the right of petition, it was carried, ayes 32, nays 14.

Mr. Morris then took the floor, and is now addressing the Senate against the resolution.

The HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES have been engaged up to this time, chiefly in the reception of reports from Committees. The message was received from the President here also, and read. Mr. Fillmore of Buffalo made several attempts to offer a resolution on the subject, but it was not in order, and the House refused to suspend the rules. He will, however, most probably, have an opportunity to present it during the day. [Boston Centinel.

"ET TU BRUTE."

The Democratic Governor of Virginia, has the impudence to ascribe the embarassments to their true causes, namely, 1. The specie circular, adopted by the arbitrary will of the Executive, and continued in force by the same authority, after an express condemnation of it by more than two-thirds of both Houses of Congress. 2. The bungling manner in which the distribution act was executed by the Secretary of the Treasury. And 3, and not least, the conditions imposed by the Secretary of the Treasury on the Banks in which the public money was deposited, that they should accommodate largely to reconcile the people to the Experiment and the Administration. What will Mr. Van Buren and his friends say to this? [Phil. Herald.

THE HON. RICHARD FLETCHER.

Mr. Fletcher has addressed a long letter to the citizens of Boston, his constituents, explanatory of his conduct in Congress in relation to his speech at Faneuil Hall. His letter is published in the Atlas, and is accompanied by editorial explanations which, taken in conjunction with Mr. Fletcher's explanation, and reiteration of what he did actually say at Faneuil Hall, completely clear him from the censure under which he before labored.

Mr. Fletcher had stated, on the floor of Congress, that his speech as reported, contained expressions which he would never have used; in reply to this the Atlas asserted that Mr. F. had himself examined and corrected the proof before it was published. But the Atlas now cheerfully admits that the Editor was mistaken, and had been led into error by the foreman [illegible] the revision of the speech was made by another person and not Mr F.

Mr. Cambreleng has crowed or as the Editor of the New York Express says, "cock-a-doodle-doed," over Mr. F. ever since he found the latter was not disposed to invite him to partake of pistols and coffee; but Mr. F. has reiterated the charges he made against the Committee of Ways and Means, namely that the majority adopted the bills sent them from the Treasury Department, without deliberation, and reported them to the House in the shape they were received, thereby making themselves the mere tools of the Executive. We presume Mr. Cambreleng with all his "cock a-doodle-doing," will not dare to contradict this statement of Mr. Fletcher, and must digest it as best he may. [Philadelphia Herald.

MORSELS OF PHILOLOGY.

Should the federalists obtain the power, which they are now endeavoring to obtain by bribery, finding it impossible to do it by argument, we should soon see the poor men's right of suffrage wrenched from him; and "that form of Government which has no better corrective than the virtue and intelligence of the people," torn pease meal!!!

What a state of society have they at the south. Men going into the halls of legislation, armed to the teeth with dirks, pistols and Bowie knives, and thus armed as an every-day practice. We never saw a Bowie-knife, but believe they are 15 to 18 inches long, sharp on one side only, and are concealed in the bosom, next to the shirt, and extend down under the waste of the pantaloons. Weapons are but little worn in New England, but between that and the Allegheny Mountains they are more or less worn; beyond the Mountains it becomes a general practice, and especially south of the Ohio river, where scarce a white man can be found destitute of deadly weapons. But few, comparatively, of the numerous bloody transactions find their way into the public prints, but are hushed up. Sword canes is another very common weapon with southerners, which can be unsheathed in an instant!!! [Rep Journal.]

WONDERFUL! Not a word in the Globe of Monday night against Nicholas Biddle the Pennsylvania Bank of the United States or "resurrection notes"! Has "his serene highness" discovered that the citizens of Pennsylvania have too much pride to allow the general government to insult them by an audacious attempt to destroy the best institutions of the state, without resenting it? [Ibid

AN IRON HORSE. A mechanic named David Ristet, of New-Haven, has invented an iron horse. This is propelled by springs by the turning of a crank, which the rider does with the greatest ease. The horse is a fac simile of a live one, and will go at the rate of twenty miles an hour. He thinks there will be no use for rail roads, and it will be much cheaper, as the horse will not eat one bushel of oats in forty years only a little oiling three or four times a year. [Mercury.

MELANCHOLY CASUALTY. A letter from the Postmaster of Camden, S. C published in the Washington Globe of Monday, states that a serious accident occurred at the ferry on the 23d inst. The flat sprung aleak and sunk as it was crossing over with twenty black persons on board, and a wagon and four horses, and also the express mail from the North, with the boy and horse. Sixteen blacks and three horses were drowned. The boy and horse were saved by swimming to the shore. The mail bag was found early the next morning, two or three hundred yards below the ferry, on some bushes. The night was very stormy and dark, and the river quite full. The mail contained three India rubber canvass bags; two of them were in tolerably good order, the third was in a very wet state, so that the packages had to be taken singly and dried by the fire. The bags were forwarded by the stage to Columbia on the 24th Dec.

POLISH REFUGEES. REVERSE OF FORTUNE. A few of the Polish refugees, who had served in their own country as common soldiers, have with great difficulty succeeded in procuring employment as excavators of the railroad; and this employment, offering a relief from the pangs of want, has been eagerly sought by their superior companions in arms; and soldiers and officers may now be seen side by side, from six o'clock in the morning to six in the evening, at the Great Western Railroad. Two of these apprentices to the axe and spade are a Lieutenant Colonel B z and a Major M z; another is a Lithuanian noble, S z, the owner in his own country of a large estate, now confiscated, and whose hours of toil and exile are embittered by his severance from a young and lovely wife and children, to correspond with whom was adjudged a crime by the despotic Czar. Many a youth of polished education and child of once wealthy parents many a scion of ancient Polish houses, fraternise with the railroad excavators; and though by their birth destined to move in the highest circles, and by their rank to sit at princely boards, may now be seen with the green turf for their table, consuming, with the English laborer, the frugal fare of a morsel of bread earned by the severest toil. COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

TAXES MUST BE PAID

MANY of the good people of this City have had "line upon line, and precept upon precept," by way of polite and pressing invitations, to pay their taxes The strong language of the Assessor's Warrants for the year 1837, as committed to me, will not allow of further parley or delay Every resident of the city, who has not yet paid his tax, is earnestly called upon to neglect no longer this necessary and important duty, as in such matters "delays are dangerous"

Non Residents should look out in order that the Collector does not make too great a profit in advertising and selling their lands for taxes of 1837 The only way to prevent this is, by calling immediately and paying the same

☞ The Collector will be at the City Hall from 9 to 10 A M and from 2 to 3 o'clock, P M.

To the Hon the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled,

THE undersigned beg leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island, at Stillwater, to extend up and across the main Penobscot River through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of Lumber at that place and in case of injury to the boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber, would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide waters, or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured

Wherefore we pray your hon body to grant us an Act of Incorporation with such immunities and restrictions as may seem just and as will subserve the interests aforesaid. And as in duty bound will ever pray.

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOK.

THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents, is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE READER, a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher," a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been very much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotyped, is free from the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it.

DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

Deservedly the most popular remedy ever known in America!

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The following recommendation is from Dr. Jacob Myers:

Extract of a letter from Dr. Jacob Myers.

"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon celebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many nostrums, most of which are impositions upon a credulous public, but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot help but give my approbation thereto. A counterfeit preparation has been offered here by a travelling agent of Comstock, N. Y., and there is also another article vended here that is strongly suspected to be spurious.
JACOB MYERS, M. D.
Mifflinton, Juniata co., Penn. May 3, 1837."

Many new and highly interesting certificates may be examined on the bill of directions.

There are many counterfeit preparations, assuming wholly or in part the name of the original and true V. P. Balsam.

The true article is signed Sampson Reed, on the label to each bottle. Price 50 cts.

The above article is for sale by G. W. HOLDEN, Bangor. nov13 4m
